Artist Market

Thank you for your interest in the Bluff Balloon Festival Art Fair on Saturday, January 13th, 2024 from 10:00 am - 6:00 pm. Please read the information below and complete the application form by January 6th, 2024.

Before you apply

- The number of types of art (jewelry, photography, painting, etc.) will be limited to encourage diversity in the show.
- We will give preference to Four Corners artists.

Information about the Artist Market

- Location: Bluff Community Center (Inside) 3rd East and Mulberry, Bluff, UT
- All booth spaces are 10 x 10. The artist must supply their own tables, lights, extension cords, seating, and display materials.

- Electricity will be provided but you must provide your own extension cord and any power strips required for your booth.
- The Community Center: The Bluff Balloon Festival, Business Owners of Bluff or Bluff Service Area will not be liable for any damage, theft, injury or weather-related damage incurred during the festival. Your signature on the Artist Market Application signifies your acceptance of these parameters.
- Footprint and Flow of Foot Traffic. For foot traffic and emergency access, you must keep your art and equipment in your booth space or immediately beside the booth, without impeding access.
- Use of wall space: Nothing can be nailed, pinned or taped onto the Community Center Wall.

Fees

The $25 Application Fee is due no later than Saturday, January 6th with your completed application. It is nonrefundable after that date. If the market is full, we will return your fee or place you on a waiting list (per your request). Artists may share booths. Please send the application and application fee to: Business Owners of Bluff, PO Box 326, Bluff, UT 84512 or drop it off at Twin Rocks Trading Post.

Sales Information

The Bluff Balloon Festival and Business Owners of Bluff do not charge a sales commission. Collection, reporting and payment of state sales tax is your responsibility. We will provide tax forms the day of the event but it is your responsibility to return them to the Utah State Tax Commission with any sales tax due.
